WORTH REMEMBERING.

Our two Kentucky Senators, James and Beckham, both ducked the vote on the resolution introduced to save Sir Roger Casement from execution. James even went so far as to insult every Irishman and Irish-American in the country by attempting to deprecate the work done by Irishmen in the making of our country. This is well worth remembering when Big Ollie comes here with his spread-eagle gallery speeches.

KENTUCKY LIAR AND COWARD.

That Prohibition party convention in St. Paul has left a bad taste in the mouths of many who formerly looked with favor upon the prohibition movement. While a majority of the delegates were not bitten by the anti-Catholic craze, a sufficient number were inoculated with the virus to make it very unpleasant for the Catholic delegates in attendance. The Catholic Bulletin of St. Paul says that the religious issue was brought into the convention by the presence and activity of the American Federation of Patriotic Societies, but to give due credit to the delegates it must be said that on the whole the convention opposed the efforts of these anti-Catholic bigots.

"Towards the end of the convention," says the Bulletin, "the delegates and visitors were treated to a sample of Southern chivalry and courtesy when the Rev. L. L. Pickett, of Wilmore, Ky., made a bitter attack on the Catholic Sisters, hoodlums, orphanages, etc., and quoted the alleged statements of Abraham Lincoln warning Americans against the encroachment of the Catholic church. He was promptly called to time by two militant Catholic women, Miss Mary I. Cramsie, of St. Paul, and Mrs. Moore, of Texas, who challenged his statement, and on his refusal to substantiate any of the charges characterized him as a 'coward' and a 'great liar.' Many of the delegates came to their assistance and asserted that the statements made by Pickett were untrue."

The St. Paul convention has all but discredited prohibition as far as Catholics are concerned.

DOES LITTLE GOOD.

England's modification of the boycott of American firms smacks of locking the stable door after the steed has been stolen. The Government having put these firms on the black list and having furnished traders with their names, it is now of little moment what its attitude may be toward these firms, since its own people have had their cue and can be depended on to make the boycott effective, particularly since it is agreed it will prove advantageous to their business outlook. Any action short of putting an embargo on all exports of war materials, including foodstuffs to the Allies, which our Government may now take will not help the boycotted firms. These firms have undoubtedly cause to complain of the administration for the manner in which it sacrifices their interests to English needs. An embargo would save the situation, and incidentally save a good foreign market to our own shippers when the war is over. From an administration devoted to "preparedness," and whose motto is "America first," this cowardly truckling to England comes with a very bad grace. America first must mean something besides wiping the nose every time Johnny Bull sneezes, and certainly "preparedness" is not limited to the training of men for slaughter—it also has a commercial side if it means anything more than pre-election buncombe.

STRAIDLES BOTH PLATFORMS.

After time for its study the feeling is growing that Judge Hughes' speech accepting the nomination for President is at once forceful and disappointing. Regarded as a studied effort to straddle both the Republican and Progressive platforms, it is all that could be desired. It is verbose and vigorous, but lacks directness. It assails the Democratic administration unsparingly, but does not offer a single definite suggestion as to the course that should be pursued in any given case, and which he will pursue if given the opportunity. It bristles with high sounding generalities. It elected the Judge promises to safeguard the rights of Americans on land and sea, and mentions particularly the Lusitania case, but he gives no hint of the means he will adopt to safeguard those rights. The robbery of our mails, the using of business secrets of our shipping and contracting firms by England for the benefit of her own shippers and contractors Judge Hughes does not mention; nor does he indicate the means by which he proposes to stop like contemptible species of piracy. The Judge's stand on the "preparedness" issue is hardly sincere. He assails the Democrats for neglecting to prepare for war during the past three years when events pointed to the necessity of a heavy military and naval programme, quite ignoring the fact that during the generation that his party was in power it did absolutely nothing toward "preparedness." Judge Hughes commits himself to nothing. If he have any definite policy in regard to the problems of today he does not reveal it; his words will bear any interpretation he chooses to give them. Of course he stands for a high tariff and resents the prosperity which the country enjoys under the Democratic dispensation as something unnatural. On the whole his pronouncement is tame enough, and must prove a keen disappointment to those who expected a strong declaration on the questions growing out of the European war.

DESPERATE MEANS.

The Menace lost over half of its subscribers during the past year according to official figures in the Advertiser's Bulletin. This probably explains why a bomb was exploded under the plant (with little damage), as the dupes throughout the country needed stirring up.

There is a wide field right here in Louisville for charity work for the Woman's Christian Temperance Union and the Flower Mission, who are said to have become very solicitous about the treatment of the man incarcerated in Jeffersonville for the murder of Mrs. Mary Fanny Brookbank last April. Why will these women pick up with murderers and neglect the industrious and deserving poor in their own neighborhoods? Such are not real charity workers, but rather seekers after notoriety that discredit them.

The threatened railroad strike has been averted. Now let the United States Board of Mediation and Conciliation make a settlement that is just to the men and the railroads involved. The board has the power and should exercise the same. Both sides have rights that the people want respected.

Despite all the clatter and dust kicked up by the Republican primary and the nomination of Owens, the sensible men of Louisville will cast their votes for Swager Sherley, who has served faithfully and well.

Many Tories in this country are still collecting funds and supplies for dear old H'England while ignoring our own boys at the border and in army camps.

Monday is a fast day, being the vigil of the Feast of the Assumption of Our Blessed Lady. It is a holy day of obligation.

M'ISTER ON CARRANZA.

That the Carranza Government can not succeed because its head has defied and persecuted the church of his birth and has renounced the faith of all but a scant half million of the people of Mexico, was the central thought in a striking sermon preached by Dr. D. T. Robertson at the Congregational church, Paribault, Minn., on a recent Sunday morning. Dr. Robertson gave one striking fact after another of priests and members of religious orders driven from their duties, persecuted and murdered and church property ruthlessly destroyed by the Carranza Government, who viciously attempted to destroy the Catholic church and its influences in Mexico. He has destroyed, by that process, nearly all the educational institutions of the country. It was pointed out that Carranza is not Protestant, but anti-religious and destructive of all moral safeguards. He also asked all Masons who might be in the audience to remember that there are two kinds of Masons in Mexico, and that the lodges to which Carranza and his followers belong would not be tolerated or even entered by a member of the order from the United States. The whole difference between Villa and Carranza, it was stated, is that one is an ignorant bandit and the other an educated cut-throat. Dr. Robertson was a former missionary in Mexico.

RECEIVED PAPAL BLESSING.

The summer session of the Ursuline Sisters of Louisville at the Sacred Heart Academy offered to the teachers every advantage which could be of service to them in their work in the class room. Fifteen of the most efficient and experienced members of the community constituted the teaching staff of the collegiate and conservatory courses. Opportunities were given for freehand perspective, constructive and color drawing by Miss Rutherford, of New York; for physical culture by Miss Hammer, Louisville; for voice culture by Miss Steens, Louisville, and singing for the grades. Rev. Roderick McEachen gave an exceptional series of lectures on "Principles of Education," "The Teacher and Her Work," and "Character Building." Dr. Fulgens, O. F. M., of Cincinnati, spoke of the dignity of the Catholic teacher. Mr. Schales, of Cincinnati, the leading authority on his subject, lectured on church music and congregational singing, and G. W. Lewis, of Chicago, handled the subject of phonetics. Prof. P. O'Sullivan, pianist, and Charles Letzler, violinist, both of the Louisville Conservatory, entertained the Sisters of the summer school by an excellent programme. As the summer school was coming to its close the climax of the vacation happiness was reached in the reception of the Papal blessing and the plenary indulgence in "articulo mortis." The handsome photo of His Holiness by Cardinal G. Felici is mounted over the seal and forms a desirable adornment for the convent.

The banking conditions are eminently satisfactory because of the fact that there is plenty of currency in circulation. Yes, Kentucky, but the whole United States are enjoying great prosperity and it is not temporary at all."

CONNOLLY'S DEFL.

The following is a copy of the last statement issued by James Connolly, the Irish rebel leader, and was smuggled into this country by his daughter, Miss Nora Connolly, who had been identified with her father in the organization of the Irish army, and who escaped to this country immediately after her father's execution. It breathes a defiance to England in every line: "We went out to break the connection between this country and the British Empire and to establish an Irish republic. We believe that the call we then issued to the people of Ireland was a nobler call in a holier cause than any call issued to them during this war having any connection with the war. We succeeded in proving that Irishmen are ready to die endeavoring to win for Ireland those national rights which the British Government has been asking them to die to win for Belgium. As long as that remains the case the cause of Irish freedom is safe. Believing that the British Government has no right in Ireland, never had any right in Ireland and never can have any right in Ireland, the presence in any generation of Irishmen of even a respectable minority, ready to die to affirm that truth, makes that Government forever an usurpation and a crime against human progress. I personally thank God that I have lived to see the day when thousands of Irish men and boys, and hundreds of Irish women and girls, were ready to affirm that truth and to attest it with their lives if need be. (Signed) James Connolly. "Commandant-General Dublin Division, Army of the Irish Republic." Mr. Connolly was captured by the British military authorities after he had been wounded. Being unable to walk he was taken to Dublin Castle on a stretcher and tried for treason. On May 12, three days after the court-martial, Mr. Connolly, still weak from his wounds, was propped into a chair and shot. The British authorities refused to allow his relatives to have the body. Instead they threw it into a trench.

A real country picnic will be given by the congregation of St. Aloysius church, of Pewee Valley, next Thursday, and many people of this city and surrounding vicinity are expected to take advantage of the opportunity offered for a nice suburban car ride, at the end of which they will be able to secure a good old-fashioned country dinner and enjoy the hospitality of the people of Pewee Valley. A chicken dinner with fresh country-vegetables is one of the features offered by the Committee of Arrangements. Rev. Father Boes, the pastor, and members of the congregation invite all Louisville friends and acquaintances to be their guests next Thursday.

FIELD MEET

Of Twin City League at
Eclipse Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The best amateur talent in the city will participate in the Twin City field meet which takes place tomorrow afternoon at Eclipse Park, and the officials in charge have arranged a splendid program, one that displays the enterprise of this hustling organization. As this annual affair is given for the sole purpose of defraying the league's season expenses a large crowd of the league's followers, and especially those who have been entertained weekly with the high class of ball furnished by the Twin City on the Shawnee Park diamonds, is looked for. The Twin City as a Catholic organization has reflected credit upon the societies and parishes represented in the league roster and the support of these societies and parishes should be forthcoming in assisting the league's finances.

The field meet will begin promptly at 2 o'clock and the all-star game will be called at 3. The field events are as follows: Hundred-yard dash—First prize, pair baseball shoes; second prize, fielder's glove; third prize, slugger bat; fourth prize, outing cap. Circling bases—First prize, pair Hanover shoes; second prize, load of coal; third prize, slugger bat. Long distance throw—First prize, pair Oxford shoes; second prize, fielder's glove; third prize, box cigars. Relay race—Cup to winners. Obstacle race—First prize, load of coal; second prize, sweater coat; third prize, necktie. Winners of all-star game—Box of cigars. Best batsman—Three-pound box candy.

Officials of field meet—E. J. Wolfe, Chairman; Joseph Hanrahan, starter; E. J. Caffrey, timer. Judges—W. J. Ryan, J. J. Barry, A. C. Spayd. Relay race inspectors—A. Mirus, Hunter Burke, Jack Bellman. Umpires of ball game—Mulligan, W. J. Logan, Lally. Presentation of pennant address—Hon. E. J. McDermott.

The all-star teams will line up as follows: Reds—Morris and Steir, p.; Higgins and Hack, c.; Voor, 1b.; Haragon, 2b.; Bosmeyer, s.; Burke, 3b.; Lovett, l. f.; Ohle, c. f.; Bosler, r. f.; Pfaffinger, utility. Blues—Murphy and Mattingly, p.; O'Laughlin and Temperle, c.; Madden, 1b.; Schlemmer, 2b.; Murphy, s. s.; O'Brien, 3b.; Renf, l. f.; Davis, c. f.; Weber, r. f.; Hafner, utility. The result of the Louisville-St. Paul game will be posted on the score board by innings. General admission to all parts of the stand twenty-five cents. Box seats ten cents extra.

GOOD FERRY BILL

In the Fontaine Ferry Theater next week a bill will be presented which from a glance seems to be about the most pretentious offered by the park management this season. Headlining will be Baskin's Russian dancers, singers and musicians. The troupe numbers eight men and two women and all are said to be clever in their particular line. Rivaling this act in excellence should be Fleta Brown, a prima donna with Robert Spencer, a well known composer, at the piano. Miss Brown has a voice of rare beauty, and when Henry W. Savage produced "Birdland" she was cast for the prima donna role. Mr. Spencer is perhaps the best known through his latest success, "Underneath the Stars." He also possesses a fine tenor voice. Only recently returned from a tour of the world, Emerson and Baldwin will offer a comedy juggling specialty. Murray Bennett, a singing comedian, will also be on the bill should be found diverting. The swimming pool is receiving a patronage that exceeds all former seasons.

CHINESE AT NOTRE DAME

Six Chinese students have arranged to enter Notre Dame University in September. Gov. Walsh, of Massachusetts, who made the acquaintance of the Orientals on a four weeks' visit to the Philippines and accompanied them on their trip to this country seeking entrance to an American university, was instrumental in entering them in that Catholic school. Three of the young Chinese are Catholics. Chinamen have been students at Notre Dame in other years, but six is the largest number to register at any one time.

LEADERS GETTING BUSY

The leaders in the Twin City League popularity contest are getting busy in real earnest, Ray Haragon, of the Bertrands, still setting the pace, while the friends of Scorer Steinbock, Kenaley of the K. of C., Morris of Mackin, Scully of the Olympics, and Killoran of the Orioles have all started a batting rally around second place and it is pretty hard to tell just where their spurt will land them. Mattingly of the K. of C., O'Brien and Sheehan of the Champs, Pontrich of the Imperials and Higgins of the Bertrands have all been getting a steady increase, the backer of one of these saying that he was just aiming to keep his man in a condescending position for a few weeks more and then he would stage a batting rally. You can't get away from it, the world's series this year promises to be the most exciting and memorable in baseball history and the fortunate ones who will be among those present will be the envy of fans everywhere in the civilized world. Remember the two winners in the contest will go with all expenses paid and reserved seats guaranteed. A little energy by a club of five or six friends will result in sending a Twin City favorite to the big show. The complete standing to date:

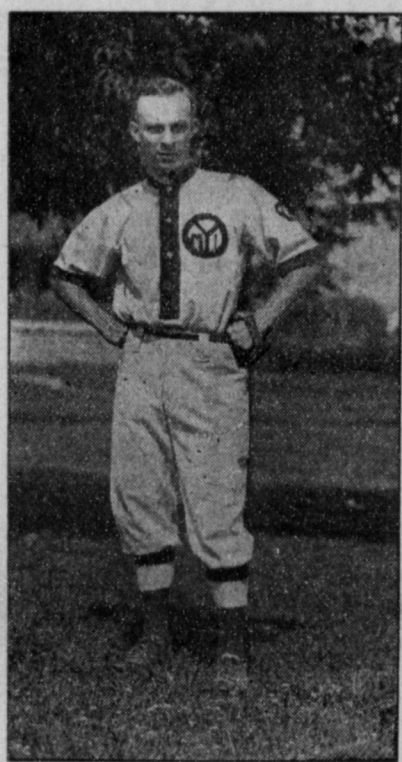

FANS ENTHUSED

The Louisville ball club closes the present series with St. Paul on Monday, thence journeying to Milwaukee for a four-game series, where the Colonels can afford to take a breathing spell, as they have found the Milwaukee team pretty easy this season. Out of fifteen games played the Louisville club has beaten the Clark tribe thirteen of that number, one of the two games won by the Brewers being a fluke. The breaking of the jinx at Minneapolis appears to be the turning point in the pennant race, the Colonels winning over the strongest lineup that Catillon had in the field this season. Following the Milwaukee series the Louisville club will go to Kansas City for five games, and these promise to furnish a battle royal, as victory or loss in these games means much to both. The fans here are enthused now as never before during the season, and if the team had been fortunate enough to have a few scheduled games at home in the next week or two tremendous crowds would be the result. It would not be a bad idea for Owner Wathen to arrange a transfer of the six Columbus games here as it would prove beneficial to both from a financial standpoint.

MARYKNOLL

The Rev. Newton Thompson, D. D., of the diocese of Albany, has joined the Catholic Foreign Mission Society of America, at Maryknoll, Ossining, N. Y. Father Thompson, whose father was a well known lawyer, a non-Catholic, in Albany, made his preparatory studies in that city and at Harvard College. Later he entered St. Joseph's Seminary, Dunwoodie, N. Y., and was ordained for his home diocese at Albany in 1908 by the late Bishop Burke. In 1910 he received in Rome the degree of doctor of divinity from the Roman University, and on his return to America was assigned to parochial duties in Troy, where his admirable spirit of zeal is still fresh in the memory of all with whom he came in contact, Catholics and non-Catholics. The Foreign Mission Society is steadily making its way to a record of splendid achievement.

NEW HAVEN.

Great sorrow has been caused in New Haven and Nelson county by the death on Wednesday of Edward C. Hagan, eighty-two years old, a retired merchant and one of the best known and highly respected citizens of that section of the State. His death was due to infirmities of age. Mr. Hagan was a member of B Company, Ninth Kentucky Regiment, better known as Orphan Brigade. He participated in many battles and served throughout the war. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Frank M. J. Sidney and George B. Hagan; two daughters, Misses Felicia and Marie Hagan, all of New Haven, and a sister, Mrs. Sirene Lancaster, of Owensboro. Miss Marie Hagan is Postmistress at New Haven. Funeral services were conducted at St. Catherine church Friday morning at 8 o'clock.
